Message from FACC President

There are no secrets to success. It is the result of preparation, hard work, and learning from failure.

COLIN POWELL

Sincerely,

Patricia J. Burke, MPA, MMC, RLO

2024-2025 FACC President

Town Clerk-Manager, Town of Palm Shores

Member Highlight

We will be highlighting a different member each week to share "what it means to be a member of FACC" for that person.

Today, enjoy reading about Assistant Deputy Clerk/Records Manager Debbie Stewart, FCRM, from the Town of Ponce Inlet.

Being a member of FACC means I have access to a wealth of knowledge and experience, from attending the conferences and webinars to peer mentoring and the FACC Discussion Forum. In the forum, I have benefited greatly from reading the questions posted and the answers that are provided. FACC's professionalism and networking capabilities have allowed me to excel in my profession, knowing that the members of the FACC are always willing to assist and support each other. Read More

City Clerks: Pillars of Our Community

By: Richard Kemner, Vice President, RDK Truck Sales

In the bustling landscape of city operations, there exists a group of dedicated individuals whose contributions often go unnoticed, yet their impact is profound and indispensable. These unsung heroes are none other than our City Clerks, the backbone of our local governance, ensuring that the wheels of our city turn smoothly day in and day out.

At RDK Truck Sales, we hold in high regard the exceptional work of City Clerks and wish to extend our deepest gratitude for their tireless efforts in serving our community. Their unwavering dedication to excellence is truly admirable, reflected in every task they undertake. From managing crucial official records to coordinating elections and facilitating public meetings, City Clerks exhibit unwavering professionalism, efficiency and attention to detail that are vital for upholding the integrity of our city's operations.

Beyond their administrative duties, City Clerks act as liaisons between the government and the people, offering essential information and support to residents, businesses and visitors with patience and kindness. Their welcoming demeanor and willingness to assist not only foster trust but also nurture a sense of belonging within our community.

City Clerks are the bedrock of our community, embodying strength, dedication and service. We are truly fortunate to have such a remarkable group of individuals guiding us through the intricacies of city affairs. Their immeasurable contributions deserve our utmost appreciation and acknowledgment.
