

Canvassing Board attendance requirements

Per Florida Statute, canvass board members are required to attend the following meetings.

Logic and accuracy testing of tabulating equipment

(The canvassing board may designate one member to represent them.)

Election night canvassing of ballots

(A quorum must be present and must remain until all ballots are tabulated.)

Certification of election

(A quorum must be present.)

Post-election Manual Audit

(A quorum must be present and must remain until audit is completed.)

Recount

(2 members of Canvassing Board at all times. All members of Canvassing board for any decision or to resolve a discrepancy)

Run-off Elections - Same requirements as above.