Message from the President

“The more I live, the more I learn. The more I learn, the more I realize, the less I know”.

-Michel Legrand

*Sincerely,
Stacey Johnston, MMC
2021-2022 FACC President
City Clerk, City of Holmes Beach*

Highlight

We will be highlighting a different member each week to share "what it means to be a member of FACC" for that person.

Today, enjoy reading about Debra Ruesga, Deputy Town Clerk, Town of Southwest Ranches.

I became an FACC member on February 3, 2020 and I attended my first FACC Fall Academy in October 2020, which happened to be virtual. While I was disappointed to not have attended in person, I was impressed at how well put together the virtual academy was. It's an honor to be a member of this organization that is made up of such a wonderful group of people. I look forward to the time when we can all meet in person. My career in municipal government started in 2002, when I was hired part-time by the City of Pembroke Pines in their building department. After a year and a half, I became a divorced mother of two beautiful children and the need arose to find a full-time position with benefits. Just my luck, a position opened in the city clerk's office. Read More.

Back by popular request, this fresh look at new council and candidate orientations will mix national best practices with real-world experience and increase your odds of success for that one chance to make a great first impression! Panelists will discuss when orientations can and should occur, what topics can be covered verbally and in other formats, and practical tips for being part of outstanding orientations (whether you help to conduct them, help to prepare them or you work with those who do). Discussion will include a Q&A session as well.

Panelists: City Clerk Tammy K. Bursick, MMC, City of Vero Beach and Director Lynn Tipton, FLC University, Florida League of Cities, Inc.

Moderator: Robert E. Lee, DPA, ICMA-CM, Assistant Professor, MPA Program Coordinator, Florida Gulf Coast University and Executive Director, Center for Florida Local Government Excellence, The John Scott Dailey Florida Institute of Government

This program has been approved by IIMC for 2 hours (1 point) of CMC/MMC credit. A completed Ideas to Action (ITA) form is required to receive education credit.

The GoToTraining link will be emailed to you approximately 2-3 days before the webinar.

The education curriculum for both the CMC and MMC session content was developed, reviewed and approved by the Florida Institute of Government at Florida State University as an IIMC-approved institute, in cooperation with the FACC Professional Education Committee and Board of Directors.

Register Now or Download Fillable Registration Form to pay by check.

Registrations will not be considered complete until payment has been received. If the check is received after the webinar is full, you can take the recorded version and still receive credit after completing the ITA form.
