FLC Webinar: How Qualtrics Can Help Cities Re-Open

This webinar is for educational purposes only; it is not approved for any CMC/MMC points.

Qualtrics would like to provide an avenue for Florida cities to learn from and share with one another. Cities are responding to pandemic cases, ensuring employees feel safe returning to physical offices, and supporting local businesses in re-opening. Collecting, interpreting, and acting on resident and employee feedback is more important now than ever.

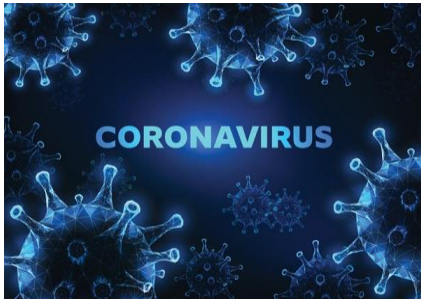

Learn how the City of Orlando is managing the COVID-19 pandemic with Qualtrics Experience Management. Additionally, the Qualtrics Public Sector team will share solutions available for cities to manage COVID-19 and continuously improve through data-driven action.

What you'll learn from this webinar:

- How the City of Orlando is managing the pandemic through XM
- What solutions are available for state and local governments
