Highlight

We will be highlighting a different member each week to share "what it means to be a member of FACC" for that person.

Today, enjoy reading about Laura Cahill, Deputy Town Clerk, Town of Jupiter.

I believe being an FACC member means an opportunity to learn and meet new people who have similar careers and goals. I have enjoyed sharing experiences with other members and being a part of something greater. I attended my first FACC Fall Academy this past October, where I learned invaluable information and met so many amazing clerks from around Florida. I have been in the Town of Jupiter clerk's office for over four years, starting as the administrative specialist III. I became the deputy town clerk and an FACC member in August 2019. Best Practices for Reopening the Government While Reducing the Spread of Infection

May 15, 2020

2:00 p.m. – 3:00 p.m. EST

This webinar is for information purposes only; it is NOT approved for any CMC/MMC points.

Program Summary

On April 29, Governor Ron DeSantis detailed his plans for reopening Florida's economy. As local governments move to reopen their doors to citizens, their offices to staff and facilities to all, how can we ensure that we do so in a way that protects the health and safety of our customers and staff? Join us at 2 p.m. EST on Friday, May 15 for a panel discussion. Infectious disease control experts and local government facility professionals will discuss how local governments are preparing their facilities for reopening, implementing best practices in infection prevention in the workplace and disseminating information on available training for staff. To help your fellow managers prepare for reopening, armed with as much information as possible, bring your questions and concerns to enrich the discussion.

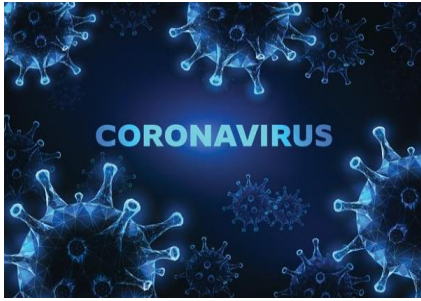

Panelists

- Dr. Cindy Prins, PhD, MPH, Associate Professor of Epidemiology and Assistant Dean for Educational Affairs, College of Public Health and Health Professions, University of Florida.
- Mr. Jim Corbett, P.E., Facilities Director for Volusia County Central Services.
- Jim Millican, Division Chief, Lealman Fire District.
