

FACC Summer Conference & Academy Ideas to Action Form (fillable pdf format)

Session Title: Legislative Update

Speakers: Allison Payne & Sam Wagner

Date/Time: June 8th from 10:00 am - 12:00 pm

To earn IIMC education credit, you are required to respond to the following two prompts in essay form for each session you attend. Each response must contain a minimum of five complete sentences based on your understanding and unique, professional perspective.

Last Name

First Name

MI

Municipality

Email Address

1. Summarize (with your town/city manager or supervisor in mind) at least one concept you learned in this session that you could/would take back to your town/city/village. Please be specific. Your response must be a minimum of five complete sentences.

2. Explain (with your town/city manager or supervisor in mind) how this concept could/would potentially benefit your town/city/village. Please be specific. Your response must be a minimum of five complete sentences.

You must email completed forms for each session in one combined file to Leslie Howington at facc@iog.fsu.edu no later than Monday, June 29, 2026, to be eligible for a Certificate of Completion with IIMC pre-approved educational hours listed.

FACC Summer Conference & Academy Ideas to Action Form (fillable pdf format)

Session Title: Joint Session – Leading with Purpose

Speakers: Dr. Mary White and Dr. Ginger Featherstone Date/Time: June 8th from 2:00 p.m. – 5:00 p.m.

To earn IIMC education credit, you are required to respond to the following prompts in essay form for each session you attend. Each response must contain a minimum of five complete sentences based on your understanding and unique, professional perspective.

Last Name

First Name

MI

Municipality

Email Address

1. Summarize (with your town/city manager or supervisor in mind) at least one concept you learned in this session that you could/would take back to your town/city/village. Please be specific. Your response must be a minimum of five complete sentences.

2. Explain (with your town/city manager or supervisor in mind) how this concept could/would potentially benefit your town/city/village. Please be specific. Your response must be a minimum of five complete sentences.

3. Describe (with your town/city manager or supervisor in mind) how you would implement or develop that concept in your municipality? If the implementation or development does not fall within your given responsibilities, answer the question “if it were me, this is how I would do it.” Please be specific. Your response must be a minimum of five complete sentences.

You must email completed forms for each session in one combined file to Leslie Howington at facc@iog.fsu.edu no later than Monday, June 29, 2026, to be eligible for a Certificate of Completion with IIMC pre-approved educational hours listed.

FACC Summer Conference & Academy Ideas to Action Form (fillable pdf format)

Session Title: Session A - Records Management and Emerging Challenges

Speakers: Randy Mora, Esq.

Date/Time: June 8th from 2:00 pm - 5:00 pm

To earn IIMC education credit, you are required to respond to the following two prompts in essay form for each session you attend. Each response must contain a minimum of five complete sentences based on your understanding and unique, professional perspective.

Last Name

First Name

MI

Municipality

Email Address

1. Summarize (with your town/city manager or supervisor in mind) at least one concept you learned in this session that you could/would take back to your town/city/village. Please be specific. Your response must be a minimum of five complete sentences.

2. Explain (with your town/city manager or supervisor in mind) how this concept could/would potentially benefit your town/city/village. Please be specific. Your response must be a minimum of five complete sentences.

You must email completed forms for each session in one combined file to Leslie Howington at facc@iog.fsu.edu no later than Monday, June 29, 2026, to be eligible for a Certificate of Completion with IIMC pre-approved educational hours listed.

FACC Summer Conference & Academy
Ideas to Action Form (fillable pdf format)

Session Title: Session B - Ethics & Public Service

Speaker: Anne Schroeder

Date/Time: June 9th from 8:00 a.m. - 10:00 a.m.

To earn IIMC education credit, you are required to respond to the following two prompts in essay form for each session you attend. Each response must contain a minimum of five complete sentences based on your understanding and unique, professional perspective.

Last Name

First Name

MI

Municipality

Email Address

1. Summarize (with your town/city manager or supervisor in mind) at least one concept you learned in this session that you could/would take back to your town/city/village. Please be specific. Your response must be a minimum of five complete sentences.

2. Explain (with your town/city manager or supervisor in mind) how this concept could/would potentially benefit your town/city/village. Please be specific. Your response must be a minimum of five complete sentences.

You must email completed forms for each session in one combined file to Leslie Howington at facc@iog.fsu.edu no later than Monday, June 29, 2026, to be eligible for a Certificate of Completion with IIMC pre-approved educational hours listed.

FACC Summer Conference & Academy Ideas to Action Form (fillable pdf format)

Session Title: Session A - The Power of "And": Reframing Stress, Strength and Service

Speaker: Tracy Ann Duhaney

Date/Time: June 9th from 10:30 am- 12:00 pm

To earn IIMC education credit, you are required to respond to the following two prompts in essay form for each session you attend. Each response must contain a minimum of five complete sentences based on your understanding and unique, professional perspective.

Last Name

First Name

MI

Municipality

Email Address

1. Summarize (with your town/city manager or supervisor in mind) at least one concept you learned in this session that you could/would take back to your town/city/village. Please be specific. Your response must be a minimum of five complete sentences.

2. Explain (with your town/city manager or supervisor in mind) how this concept could/would potentially benefit your town/city/village. Please be specific. Your response must be a minimum of five complete sentences.

You must email completed forms for each session in one combined file to Leslie Howington at facc@iog.fsu.edu no later than Monday, June 29, 2026, to be eligible for a Certificate of Completion with IIMC pre-approved educational hours listed.

FACC Summer Conference & Academy
Ideas to Action Form (fillable pdf format)

Session Title: Session B - The Human Side of Tech Transformation: Helping Staff Adapt to New Tools, New Expectations and Accountability Cultures

Speaker: Trina Pulliam

Date/Time: June 9th from 10:30 am- 12:00 pm

To earn IIMC education credit, you are required to respond to the following two prompts in essay form for each session you attend. Each response must contain a minimum of 5 complete sentences based on your understanding and unique, professional perspective.

Last Name

First Name

MI

Municipality

Email Address

1. Summarize (with your town/city manager or supervisor in mind) at least one concept you learned in this session that you could/would take back to your town/city/village. Please be specific. Your response must be a minimum of five complete sentences.

2. Explain (with your town/city manager or supervisor in mind) how this concept could/would potentially benefit your town/city/village. Please be specific. Your response must be a minimum of five complete sentences.

You must email completed forms for each session in one combined file to Leslie Howington at facc@iog.fsu.edu no later than Monday, June 29, 2026, to be eligible for a Certificate of Completion with IIMC pre-approved educational hours listed.

FACC Summer Conference & Academy

Ideas to Action Form (fillable pdf format)

Session Title: Session A - De-Escalation Techniques

Speaker: Michelle Dusseau, Ph.D

Date/Time: June 9th 2026 from 1:30 p.m. - 3:00 p.m.

To earn IIMC education credit, you are required to respond to the following two prompts in essay form for each session you attend. Each response must contain a minimum of five complete sentences based on your understanding and unique, professional perspective.

Last Name

First Name

MI

Municipality

Email Address

1. Summarize (with your town/city manager or supervisor in mind) at least one concept you learned in this session that you could/would take back to your town/city/village. Please be specific. Your response must be a minimum of five complete sentences.

2. Explain (with your town/city manager or supervisor in mind) how this concept could/would potentially benefit your town/city/village. Please be specific. Your response must be a minimum of five complete sentences.

You must email completed forms for each session in one combined file to Leslie Howington at facc@iog.fsu.edu no later than Monday, June 29, 2026, to be eligible for a Certificate of Completion with IIMC pre-approved educational hours listed.

FACC Summer Conference & Academy
Ideas to Action Form (fillable pdf format)

Session Title: Session B – Leading with Clarity: Building Self Awareness, Accountability, and Objectivity in Public Service Leadership

Speaker: Trina Pulliam

Date/Time: June 9th from 1:30 p.m. – 3:00 p.m.

To earn IIMC education credit, you are required to respond to the following two prompts in essay form for each session you attend. Each response must contain a minimum of five complete sentences based on your understanding and unique, professional perspective.

Last Name

First Name

MI

Municipality

Email Address

1. Summarize (with your town/city manager or supervisor in mind) at least one concept you learned in this session that you could/would take back to your town/city/village. Please be specific. Your response must be a minimum of five complete sentences.

2. Explain (with your town/city manager or supervisor in mind) how this concept could/would potentially benefit your town/city/village. Please be specific. Your response must be a minimum of five complete sentences.

You must email completed forms for each session in one combined file to Leslie Howington at facc@iog.fsu.edu no later than Monday, June 29, 2026, to be eligible for a Certificate of Completion with IIMC pre-approved educational hours listed.

FACC Summer Conference & Academy

Ideas to Action Form (fillable pdf format)

Session Title: Session A – Navigating Difficult Conversations with Municipal Officials

Speaker: Dr. Michele Dusseau

Date/Time: June 9th from 3:30 p.m. – 5:00 p.m.

To earn IIMC education credit, you are required to respond to the following two prompts in essay form for each session you attend. Each response must contain a minimum of five complete sentences based on your understanding and unique, professional perspective.

Last Name

First Name

MI

Municipality

Email Address

1. Summarize (with your town/city manager or supervisor in mind) at least one concept you learned in this session that you could/would take back to your town/city/village. Please be specific. Your response must be a minimum of five complete sentences.

2. Explain (with your town/city manager or supervisor in mind) how this concept could/would potentially benefit your town/city/village. Please be specific. Your response must be a minimum of five complete sentences.

You must email completed forms for each session in one combined file to Leslie Howington at facc@iog.fsu.edu no later than Monday, June 29, 2026, to be eligible for a Certificate of Completion with IIMC pre-approved educational hours listed.

FACC Summer Conference & Academy

Ideas to Action Form (fillable pdf format)

Session Title: Session B – TRIM Compliance

Speaker: Dametria Haward-Williams

Date/Time: June 9th from 3:30 p.m. – 5:00 p.m.

To earn IIMC education credit, you are required to respond to the following two prompts in essay form for each session you attend. Each response must contain a minimum of five complete sentences based on your understanding and unique, professional perspective.

Last Name

First Name

MI

Municipality

Email Address

1. Summarize (with your town/city manager or supervisor in mind) at least one concept you learned in this session that you could/would take back to your town/city/village. Please be specific. Your response must be a minimum of five complete sentences.

2. Explain (with your town/city manager or supervisor in mind) how this concept could/would potentially benefit your town/city/village. Please be specific. Your response must be a minimum of five complete sentences.

You must email completed forms for each session in one combined file to Leslie Howington at facc@iog.fsu.edu no later than Monday, June 29, 2026, to be eligible for a Certificate of Completion with IIMC pre-approved educational hours listed.

FACC Summer Conference & Academy Ideas to Action Form (fillable pdf format)

Session Title: Closing Session – More Than a Clerk: Hopeful, Healthy, and Human

Speaker: Annie Meehan, CSN

Date/Time: June 10th from 8:30 a.m. – 11:30 a.m.

To earn IIMC education credit, you are required to respond to the following two prompts in essay form for each session you attend. Each response must contain a minimum of five complete sentences based on your understanding and unique, professional perspective.

Last Name

First Name

MI

Municipality

Email Address

1. Summarize (with your town/city manager or supervisor in mind) at least one concept you learned in this session that you could/would take back to your town/city/village. Please be specific. Your response must be a minimum of five complete sentences.

2. Explain (with your town/city manager or supervisor in mind) how this concept could/would potentially benefit your town/city/village. Please be specific. Your response must be a minimum of five complete sentences.

You must email completed forms for each session in one combined file to Leslie Howington at facc@iog.fsu.edu no later than Monday, June 29, 2026, to be eligible for a Certificate of Completion with IIMC pre-approved educational hours listed.