

Membership Committee

Committee Responsibilities

The Membership Committee is responsible for supporting membership growth and retention efforts for the association. The committee shall contact members who have not renewed their membership, as well as identify and outreach to cities not currently involved in FACC and promote the benefits of membership to encourage new participation.

The Vice-President shall serve as an ex-officio member of the Membership Committee.